

AMSTERDAM DANCE EVENT 2014 – YOUR GUIDE TO

SWEDEN

EXPORT MUSIC SWEDEN

EXPORT MUSIC SWEDEN is based in Stockholm, Sweden. We were founded by the music industry associations: STIM, SAMI and IFPI/SOM and we work to help artists, musicians, organizations, labels and publishers based in Sweden to promote their music world-wide.

We make companies, musicians, artists, songwriters and producers in Sweden informed and export ready. We encourage and co-ordinate Swedish participation in international trade fairs, seminars, festivals and other activities for the promotion of Swedish music around the world. We provide education to infuse as much know-how as possible to the industry. We keep the international music industry informed about what's going on in Sweden and the industry at home up-to-date about opportunities for international exposure and export.

Ticon are Filip Mårdberg and Fredrik Gilen-holt, a Swedish progressive/psychedelic trance project. With a deep background in the techno scene they started playing around on their computer in 1995 and this step brought them along many paths they hadn't dreamed of. The experience acquired along the way has switched the scene from the amateur thing of the beginning to the standard of today – an acclaimed production with an exquisite feeling for sounds and percussion.

LINE-UP: CRITICAL CHOICE, TICON, PHAXE, EMOK, BANEL

THURSDAY 16 OCTOBER

ADAM BEYER

Awakenings presents: Drumcode
16 oct. 22:00 - 08:00
Venue: Gashouder

Adam Beyer cites Drumcodes 1 (Planet Rhythm 1995) as the first record to define his style; hard, percussive and loop oriented. This 12" names Beyer's future label and was soon followed by his critically acclaimed debut album Decoded (Planet Rhythm 1996). His need to create the perfect DJ tool gave rise to the launch of the Drumcode label allowing him total musical freedom. The label's strong concept and high production levels meant it enjoyed immediate success. After six releases Beyer launched his second label Code Red focusing on a slightly softer side of techno. Code Red finished with its 10:th and final release Stand Down (Code Red 1999) – a compilation of remixes from various international artists.

ARIL BRIKHA

NGHTDVSN ADE Special
17 oct, 22:00 - 07:00
Venue: Amsterdam Roest

In 1998 Aril Brikha's 'Groove La Chord' crossed generic boundaries. Is it techno? Is it house? Is it deep house? No one was more surprised by the success of the record than Brikha himself – he'd originally presented it on his demo as a potential B-side. It wasn't until two years after he recorded the track, when Derrick May played it in a club, that he realised it was good.

LINE-UP: MAX COOPER, DOMINIK EULBERG, GABRIEL ANANDA, TERRY TONER, EINMUSIK, ARJUNA SCHIKS, ARIL BRIKHA
